

Position Title: Licensed Physical Therapist
Department: Rehabilitation Services
Pay: Depends on experience

Job Summary:

Develops and administers a plan of treatment for the treatment of physical disease or disability, developmental deficits and related psychosocial impairment of inpatients and outpatients upon physician referral. Evaluation and development progression of patient care program. Physical Therapist must delegate and administer appropriate duties to the Physical therapy Staff and provides supervision and educational instruction to Rehab Services personnel.

Essential Job Functions:

The following is a summary of the essential functions of this job. The incumbent may perform other duties, both major and minor, that are not mentioned below; and specific functions may change from time to time. Assumes responsibility for promoting Physical Therapy services with referral sources and developing new PT programs. Communicates care effectively to appropriate staff members.

Demonstrates the ability to identify and address the needs of different patient/family age and cultural groups. Attends monthly staff meetings with no more than 4 absences per year. Exhibits appropriate professional judgment and behavior. Provides appropriate and effective treatment related to patient's specific condition. Supervises patient care by Physical Therapy Staff. Performs quality and safety review tasks on a monthly basis. Remains a productive part of the Rehabilitation Team during the entire shift.

Education and formal training:

Bachelor, Master's Degree, or entry level DPT from an accredited Physical Therapy Program, licensed by North Carolina Board of Physical Therapy Examiners or North Carolina eligible.

Work Experience:

Health service field 1 year preferred.

Knowledge, skills, and abilities required:

CPR training.

Physical Requirements:

Visual and hearing acuity. Ability to position and turn patients. Bending, stooping and lifting of equipment of at least 50 pounds.